

GRADUATE BUSINESS PROGRAMS VALUES STATEMENT

The University of Notre Dame was built on a foundation of faith and leadership exemplified by Father Edward Sorin. As members of the Mendoza College of Business, we affirm our commitment to his vision of a College serving as a force for good in the world.

Thus, we espouse the following values in our graduate programs:

COMMUNITY & RESPONSIBILITY

- o Foster camaraderie and support among students, faculty, administration, and alumni
- o Serve the community through mentorship and collaboration
- o Exercise stewardship of resources entrusted to us
- o Further an understanding of our responsibility to the global community

EXCELLENCE

- o Strive always to meet the highest personal and professional standards
- o Challenge each other to reach their highest potential
- o Pursue academic achievement passionately
- o Integrate ethical behavior with excellence

INTEGRITY

- o Deliver on our commitments to others
- o Demonstrate moral courage even in the face of adversity
- o Practice fairness, forthrightness and transparency
- o Develop a deeper understanding of our moral obligations

LEADERSHIP

- o Inspire others through vision and collaboration
- o Learn from and serve others
- o Cultivate growth through trust, respect and accountability
- o Exercise wisdom, empathy and honesty in decision making

SPIRITUALITY

- o Embrace the spiritual dimension of each person
- o Nurture a faith-seeking community by respecting all religious traditions
- o Maintain balance in personal and professional endeavors
- o Seek self-discovery through spiritual development and reflection

UNIVERSITY OF
NOTRE DAME

Mendoza College of Business